BRITISH SHIP IS TORPEDOED BY SUBMARINE

By International News Service.
LONDON, April 15.—The British steamship Patrian of the General Steam Navigation Company was torpedoed by a German submarine in the North Sea today. Advice received here at noon stated that eleven members of her crew were saved.

The Patrian was a vessel of 784 tons, commanded by Captain F. G. Cole. Reports from Amsterdam today asserted that four Dutch steam trawlers were seized by a German torpedo boat Wednesday and taken to an unknown destination, according to a Yumidis dispatch to the Amsterdam Telegraph.

London Gets Hint of German Spy Raid

By International News Service.
LONDON, April 15.—An emergency call summoning a detachment of special constables to Scotland Yard was issued at headquarters today. The last previous raid was issued when German citizens were rounded up here. This fact caused reports that a raid on alleged spy residences was to be conducted.

Germany Urged to Ask U. S.: "Are You Neutral or Enemy?"

AMSTERDAM, April 15.—The Hamburger Nachrichten, commenting on the German memorandum to the State Department at Washington, declares the United States alone England to act as the peace and supplies her with all the war materials she requires, and continues: "Many a one who has had to observe this procedure of the United States has struck the table with his fist. The anger created in Europe is greater than the people over there allow themselves to imagine."

"Our Foreign Office has now found the right language against France, against England, and, without any sort of consideration, against the United States, too."

"With consideration and forbearance we get no further forward. The German people will gradually catch with their declared enemies, although tremendous efforts will be required, but behind them stand other enemies who pretend to be neutral and claim from us the rights of neutrality, together with every consideration, but who, nevertheless, continuously and zealously support our enemies and assist them in their war against us."

"It is time that a strong word went to Washington. In expression it will be polite, but its meaning can only be: Are you neutral or are you our enemy?"

The Hamburger Nachrichten was the medium used by Chancellor Bismarck for his official announcements, and is still generally regarded as a semi-official newspaper, conservative and of high standing. In Germany its editorials are taken most seriously.

WIDOW OF ADAMS GETS $1,500,000

The will of Charles Francis Adams, the famous publisher, who died at his residence on March 25, was allowed today by Judge Lawson in the Probate Court at East Cambridge. All the estate, valued at $1,500,000, is left to his wife, Mrs. Mary Oden Adams of Lincoln. Mrs. Adams was appointed executrix of the will under a bond of $2,000,000. There are no public bequests. Mr. Adams had three children, Elizabeth O., John H. and Henry Adams, 24.

Train Robbers Pile Loot in 2 Auto Trucks

By International News Service.
BUFFALO, N. Y., April 15.—Lining up the crew against the side of the train in Wild West style, four masked men, armed with revolvers, held up a fast freight train on the New York Central at Saratoga early today. While two men stood guard over the crew the other two robbers broke open the cars.

The freight left Rochester last night loaded with valuable merchandise. It was bound for Suspension Bridge, where a connection is made with the Michigan Central. The crew consisted of the engineer, fireman, conductor and two brakemen. The train slowed down in passing through the town of Saratoga. A man appeared on the tracks and waved a warning. The engineer stopped the train. Two men levelled their revolvers at the engineer and fireman and started the engine. The train started to move. The robbers then appeared. Two robbers opened the box cars and loaded the valuable merchandise into two auto trucks. A few minutes later the engine was in Suspension Bridge.

Seeking a favorable moment when the guard was standing on the ground, the engineer and fireman leaped back into the cab of the engine and started the engine. The guards tried to reach them, but were soon overhauled. Then they began a thrilling run. A few minutes later the engine was in Suspension Bridge.

POLE MURDER POLICE MYSTERY

Peter Karamela and Arthur Peridies were murdered early today in Peabody by a mysterious assassin, whose motive, according to friends of the victims, was to avenge the young wife whom Karamela is said to have abandoned in Greece. The two men were shot to death in Karamela's room, killed Peridies on the ground floor at 31 Central street, Peabody. Peridies, who lived in Lynn, was visiting Karamela at the time.

The assassin shot in through the unlocked front door of the boarding house, made his way into Karamela's room, killed Peridies as he slept with two shots, fatally wounded Karamela with a third shot, then escaped.

MESSAGE TO AMERICANS FROM THE POPE

By International News Service.
WASHINGTON, April 15.—A message of love for Americans from Pope Benedict XV. was delivered at the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Catholic University of America. The very monies offered with solemn porteur were at St. Patrick's Church, Cardinal Farley was the celebrant and Cardinal Gibbons delivered the sermon.

In his sermon the Cardinal said in part: "For the growth of the University we are indebted above all to the wisdom of God, for whose glory the work was begun. To the spirit of Leo XIII. and Pius X. and their successors, Pope Benedict XV. we make public acknowledgment of our gratitude."

To the Catholics of the United States we return our thanks for their generous support. The experience of those twenty-five years emphasizes the need which the university aims to supply: the need of divine truth to complete our human knowledge of divine justice as the highest sanction of law, of the spirit of Christ in our ministrations of mercy and love.

There is no real liberty without law, and there is no meaning or validity of law unless it be observed. The following letter from the Pope was read at the celebration: "You, beloved sons and venerable brethren, should above all rejoice at the prosperity of the university, for it is the sign of the efficacy of your action and thought, and that the beginning and fruitful progress of this seat of learning are owing especially to your wise and timely care."

Part of Sunken Submarine F-4 Found Crushed

By International News Service.
HONOLULU, April 15.—Chief Gunner's Mate George D. Sullivan, the second diver to make the descent to the ocean's floor and examine the submarine F-4, today reported that the superstructure of the wrecked vessel is caved in and the hull built with water.

Sullivan, who made a partial survey of the hull reported that aside from the damage to the superstructure he was unable to find any holes and that the top plates were not crushed in. One of the lines used by the searchers in the earlier attempt to locate the vessel had fouled in the superstructure. Work was begun today to free the fouled line and to make other fast.

Operation Is Performed on Mrs. Roosevelt

By International News Service.
NEW YORK, April 15.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt underwent an operation at Roosevelt Hospital today. The operation was performed shortly after 9 a. m. by Dr. Howard C. Taylor.

It was announced that the operation had been successful, and that Mrs. Roosevelt would soon be on the road to recovery. Colonel Roosevelt and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., arrived at the hospital a short time before the time set for the operation, and remained while it was taking place. Young Roosevelt left shortly after it was announced that the operation had been successful.

The surgeon, Dr. John C. Taylor, said he would stay for some time. The surgeon, Dr. John C. Taylor, said he would stay for some time. The surgeon, Dr. John C. Taylor, said he would stay for some time.

ENORMOUS LOSSES IN CARPATHIAN CONFLICT

The titanic struggle in the Carpathians, in which 4,000,000 men are said to be engaged on both sides, continues without decisive result, judging from today's reports from Petrograd and Berlin, which in many important details, are conflicting. Berlin officially states that the Russians, exhausted and under pressure along the entire front, have stopped their advance. The Russian War Office says the German advance east of Tarnobrzeg has been crushed, and that the Russians are pushing ahead. Berlin says the Russians were routed near Kozlowa with heavy losses. Petrograd advises say the Russian victory at Kozlowa opens the way for a new advance against Usok Pass. The Russian and German reports follow:

AUSTRO-GERMAN DEFEAT NEAR USOK PASS IS REPORTED

By International News Service.
PETERSBURG, April 15.—The Austro-German offensive at Kozlowa, northeast of Usok Pass, has been completely smashed, the Russian War Office announced today. In a seventeen-hour battle on Tuesday night and Wednesday, the attacking Russian troops suffered terrible losses. They charged the Russian positions seven times with the bayonet, only to be driven back each time, leaving large numbers of dead before the Russian lines.

The night fighting was the fiercest that has marked the Carpathian campaign. Thrice the Austro-German forces penetrated the Russian advanced trenches, only to perish from the Russian bayonet thrusts while the heavy artillery fire swept the ground behind them and prevented the approach of reinforcements.

The Russian victory at Kozlowa opens the way for a new advance against Usok Pass and height 292. According to the War Office the Austro-German advance east of Usok has been completely crushed, and the main Russian offensive operations are now being conducted. Violent fighting at Kozlowa was captured by the Russian Tuesday and from this point and Kozlowa they will be able to make two attacks against the Usok position. The Austro-German offensive from the hospital.

WAR BOOMS U. S. STEEL INDUSTRY

Coinciding with the activity on the Stock Exchange is Bethlehem Steel's new endorsement of reports that more submarine ports are being shipped to Cuba. It is reported that Pittsburgh magazines are diverting their plants into munitions factories to supply the allies.

It is also reported that the statement that Henry C. Frick was fighting to wrest control of Bethlehem Steel from Charles M. Schwab is a lie. Schwab is reported to have said after a meeting of the Finance Committee of the United States Steel Company in the office of Mr. Schwab that he was not going to leave if they were again separating. He called to Frick: "Then you are wellish. Mr. Frick, you are wellish. Never worry about my life."

The submarine ports reports are also being taken in order to steady shipping of minor ports, and to make it possible to build into complete submarines. In Pittsburgh the magazines are reported to have admitted that special armory had been installed for the purpose of building the submarine ports that will take a year to complete. The magazine said that Europe.

250,000 JOIN IN ENGLAND'S CALL TO BILLY SUNDAY TO LEAD NATIONAL WAR ON LIQUOR

Evangelist Wanted to Start National Campaign for Prohibition.

FATHERSON, N. J. April 15.—England has made its bid for Billy Sunday. Over 250,000 people, including some of the most prominent business men in the United Kingdom, joined today in an appeal to the great evangelist to lead the national battle for prohibition.

What Cadum Is Made of

Cadum, the well-known remedy for Eczema, and other skin troubles, is made of the very best ingredients and in drug stores that is well known. A list of its ingredients is printed upon every box. One ingredient is oil of eucalyptus, which is recognized by doctors as being one of the best things known for Eczema. Another ingredient is zinc oxide, which does up the water that forms upon some places on the skin. Two other ingredients are petroleum and white wax, which make a ointment to protect these parts from the air and water. A test box of Cadum can be secured in any drug store for 50c, but it is cheaper to buy the 25c size, as it contains nearly four times as much as the 50c size.—Advertisement.

TEN 'EXPERIENCE' GIRLS ARE TO HEAR BILLY SUNDAY

NEW YORK, April 15.—Ten young women who portray the roles of Intoxication, Flaming, Slender, Frivolity, Excitement, Love, Deceit, Pleasure, Beauty and Fashion in the modern morality play, "Experience," at the Casino Theatre, will make a trip to Paterson, N. J., today, and will occupy seats on the platform at the service of Billy Sunday. The party will be accompanied by Morris Chest, one of the producers of the play, who heard one of Sunday's sermons a few days ago, and believes he is accomplishing great good by his evangelistic tour, and who is also particularly anxious that the young women who portray the vices of Broadway should hear him.

They want him to open his campaign in Royal Albert Hall, London, on April 27. The call for Sunday came from Sir Henry Edwards, Bart., England's biggest shoe manufacturer, and chairman of the business men's campaign for prohibition.

In England, who sent the following cable:

Believe you could win prohibition for Great Britain. The industry is ready. Quarter of a million appeals have been received by David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer. We propose starting your campaign in Royal Albert Hall on April 27. The King and Queen would probably attend. Strong business men are behind the movement. All the receipts would go to you, less the organization expenses.

Sunday announced yesterday when first informed of the probability of the call to England that he would "think it over." He had nothing further to add today.

CALL FOR SINNERS.

The evangelist's first call to the young men who portray the vices of Broadway should hear him. At least seven of each ten were women, who were already Christians enough to have hymn books and to sing the songs of the church. He said that always with the forward march of the evangelistic movement.

Sunday, at the end of a sermon on "Backsliding," told a "dramatic effect" the story of King Cyrus desiring the married woman Panthea, wife of one of his commanders. He swelt upon Panthea's refusal of Cyrus. He narrated how Cyrus sent the husband into battle so that he might be killed.

He depicted the King's approach toward the spot where the wife sat with her dead husband's body in her lap. The King's sword thrust, the woman's wailing of a dagger and the King's cry of "I am a man, and this is the moral of a woman would be the story of a man, who should not his heavenly true to Christ, who should be true to JUST AS I AM."

"O, Lord," exclaimed Billy, "We've been in Paterson for a week and a half. I don't know if I've been converted. I don't know if I believe in the old Paterson, New Jersey, and Hackensack and Montclair and all those places. How many of you want Jesus Christ in your lives? How many of you are willing to have it known?"

How many will say, I believe in my Jesus and Mr. Sunday here, here's my hand? "Yes and sing 'Just As I Am With One More Plea.' How many, come on, on 'To Redeemers, his music under-stand, just as I am. 'To an' other—let out of the way, let, now."

The choir, over and over again, until the effect was almost hypnotic.

ORANGE, Cal., April 15.—C. G. Redman, believes there is some remarkable preservative quality in the soil here, as he has just harvested a crop of potatoes and discovered that the seed potatoes from which they grew are practically as well preserved as when he put them in the ground. Although these seed potatoes sprouted and grew vines which bore a new crop of potatoes and withered up, the seed potatoes themselves, when they were dug from the ground, showed no evidence of decay, but were firm and clean as when planted.

Original of Rex Beach 'Spoilers' Is Shot in Back

PORTLAND, Ore., April 15.—William T. Hume, original of one of the characters in Rex Beach's "Spoilers," an attorney prominently known in Oregon, California and Alaska, was shot in the back by a M. M. office here by F. A. Connetto, a barber, who had come to see a M. M. office another attorney who had occupied Hume's law office, and with whom Connetto had quarreled.

Hume was born in Sacramento, and his family was prominent there and in San Francisco for fifty years ago. While there he was retained by Mrs. Ella Hume in her fight for a gold stake half interest in the Ophir gold mines, worth $12,000,000.

section, directly before Sunday's pulpit, were cleared. The little girl was crowded out of the way and sent to Sunday's hand at all. She sat down, and the mourners' band—

She said afterward she was Agnes Deane. She had been a member of Sunday school since she was three, but now she was "saved." She had "hit the trail."

The choir went on with its semi-hymnic chant, "Just as I Am."

A black-gowned waiting woman stepped out and was the first to shake Sunday's hand. He paid scant heed to her. He exclaimed to his wife, "You preachers, don't stand there seeing how it's done. Get out and do some of it."

Later, to the audience, as he was changing the hands of a few mill girls who came up, Billy called, "Come on, say: Here's my hand, the best I know, for Christ."

CARDS GIVEN OUT. Her came forward slowly. There were only two in the first 150 trail hitters. Then others took courage.

When about fifteen hundred were filled numbers counted 324 persons altogether; there were about forty men sprinkled in the feminine assemblage. The choir chanted, "We're Marching on to Zion, Beautiful City above."

Cards were distributed. Names and addresses were noted down from the ranks of those who had grasped Sunday's hand. They are to be gone after by the ministers later.

When apparently all had come forward who intended to come, Sunday suddenly exclaimed: "God bless us all. Good night, and retired."

His followers regarded the trail-biting display—from a somewhat standpoint—was splendid. On his first visit to Philadelphia, out of an audience of about 15,000, he got about 400.

DR. SAMUEL CROTHERS CALLS 'BILLY' SUNDAY MAN OF GREAT FAITH

"Both 'Billy' Sunday and the people that went to hear him in Philadelphia showed themselves ignorant that anything important has happened in the last generation," declared the Rev. Samuel H. Crothers of Cambridge in speaking before the Unitarian society.

"I paid one visit to Mr. Sunday, and I was very much impressed," Crothers said. "He was addressing 10,000 people, and he passed by me and the man I have heard for a very long time."

The impression I gained from the first Appeal to Sinners in Paterson Brings Over 10 to Mercy Seat.

Today meeting was that there was a man of great faith who was trying to save souls and bring the message to these people. Many of the things said were splendid. "I have heard reference to Hall and to Unitarianism to be founded on principle."

Your Grandmother's Remedy for Purifying the Blood

And Renovating the System in the Springtime

Ask for Sulphur Tablets.

What was grandmother's marvellous remedy? Read, you heard of it. Yes, you have. It was sulphur, more of tartar and iodine. The table shows it with the numerous lauds.

A modern method uses the cream of tartar and sulphur into marvellous tablets and mixes them with herbs, roots, etc., making a wonderful tonic blood purifier and system renovator.

Just try Sulphur Tablets (not sulphur tablets), but Sulphur—remember the name—and get the tablets in small boxes at 50c per box. Grow-up people and children who don't feel well, who are constipated or sluggish, or who have pimples and skin troubles, can use them. CARRIGAN'S SOX EAGER TO WIN
SECOND GAME OF SERIES FROM ATHLETICS THIS AFTERNOON

By A. M. C. MITCHELL.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26.—There is a feeling in the town that there are just 153 games to be played by the Red Sox. One of these 153 games will be played today and a supreme effort will be made by Uncle Sam to reverse the tactics of the "opening game" and it is quite likely that Ray Collins, nicknamed "Pete," will be sent against the Mackems with his left-handed shoes and collage bred curves.

There is a ball player in the lineup when the bases were full with one out. And when he got the ball he was in the hands of one of the best batters in the league. He was doing nothing compared to the lecherous manner he threw the ball to the plate. Manager Carrigan played Wagner on the bench. He was not allowed to hit Mike McNally, the rookie. Doubtless he figured the ball-scarred catcher would be a better bet in a critical moment. Heine was in only all right, so steady in fact that the manager was not sure whether he could get the ball home. A moment before this day took place Strunk's are all say—a left-handed pitcher is mighty hard to beat at Shibe Park. It would seem as if the record of Red Sox hits against southpaw Pennock yesterday is any criterion. Carrigan's men, as every lover of baseball in New England already knows, made one, lone, punky hit off the skinny Pennock. Harry Hooper made it after two men were out in the the Red Sox batsmen after the opening game. "And when a left-hander works it is just the same. Old Eddie Plank was almost unbeatable at Shibe Park."

So doubtless Uncle Ben will send Pete Collins to the box today to get back that lost game. Collins is a left-hander. And then, perhaps, Dutch

WAIT OUT PITCHER. It would seem as though it was the policy of the Athletics for the first man up in each inning to wait out the pitcher to the limit. This plan practically won for them yesterday, as it has in years gone by. The Red Sox, on the other hand, seldom, if ever, try any such scheme. Mostly, the batsmen go up to the plate and swing for the pleasure, and the pitcher gets the most of the sneers of criticism. The last hit

Thousands After De Luxe Trips $1,250 in Gold Adds to Zest

The rapidly with which the men and women of New England have taken to the American's California Tour Contest is most gratifying to this newspaper.

The offer of the twenty-five De Luxe trips shows that the American was right in assuming that the New England public is vitally eager to see America, and intensely anxious to visit the Expositions at San Francisco and San Diego.

Of course, this magnificent opportunity to view some of the greatest scenic glories of the wonderful West is bound to make a strong appeal to anyone with the least bit of patriotism.

The American is doing more, however, than just affording trips on which its guests may admire the passing scenery—it is giving tours lasting three weeks, and COUPLED WITH EVERY CONCEIVABLE COMFORT THAT MONEY CAN BUY AND THOUGHTFULNESS SUGGEST.

This is what is going to make these trips ones to be remembered by the fortunate participants in days to come.

For, after all, any trip is enjoyable or distasteful, according to how comfortable the person is who makes it. If anyone said to you, "Come with me to the Rocky Mountains; we'll walk all the way and get our food as best we can," you would probably see very little in the offer to appeal to you.

The prospect of seeing the peaks of the mighty ranges would be considerably dulled by the knowledge that you might not be able to get anything to eat and not know where to sleep.

Talk as you will—nowadays we depend a lot on having things just so—we want to know that we shall not have to worry as to what we are going to have for breakfast or whether we shall have to pay a high price for dinner.

When the American's guests step aboard the Pullmans in this city for their trip to the coast and back they will be able to cast to the winds every thought of care, of worry and of money.

THE AMERICAN PAYS ALL THE BILLS—AND SHOULDERS ALL THE RESPONSIBILITY.

The accommodations of the twenty-five winners will be first class—super first class, if there is such a thing—luxury of travel will be the watchword throughout the whole journey.

Meals will be the very best that the high class cuisine of the trans-continental trains can afford, and, as everyone knows, that is all that an epicure could wish.

To break the journey from coast to coast the American has arranged for many stops at points of interest.

You see, these trips will combine the pleasurable with the educational, and thus prove of lasting value to the tourists. If you are said to you, "If you will pick out a trip and lay out your own route, the trip to last three weeks, I will pay the bills," what sort of a route would you pick out?

Look it over. During the three weeks you are gone, you will stop at Chicago, Denver, Colorado Springs, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Del Monte, the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, Albuquerque, New Mexico, etc., etc.

You will stop at Niagara Falls and get a view of the plains of the West, of Lake Michigan, of the prairies of Nebraska, of the Rocky Mountains, of Pike's Peak, of the Garden of the Gods, of Frontier River Canyon, of the orange groves, the orchards, the vineyards of California, of the mighty Exposition at San Francisco, of the Exposition at San Diego, of the Big Trees, of the Gawnish orchard farm, of Mt. Rubidoux, of the Colorado Canyon, of the Indian Museum at Albuquerque and at Kansas City.

And this is not including the thousand and one sights you will see at the two great Fairs, admission to which is paid for by this newspaper.

You will have four whole days in San Francisco, free to go to the FIFTY MILLION DOLLAR Exposition grounds when you will, and to explore the magnificent palaces of exhibits, the works of art and the interesting displays.

We shall tell you in future articles more of the details of the great Fairs. But, at present, this outline ought to be incentive enough to prove to you that these De Luxe tours will be as perfect from every point of view as they can be made.

There's one, and only one, way to get ahead in this splendid competition, and that is by saving and having your friends save the vote coupons which appear in the Daily and Sunday American.

There's no red tape or string to this offer. There are no subscriptions to solicit. The one and only way, as before mentioned, is through the aid of the vote coupons appearing in the Daily and Sunday American.

Could it possibly be more simple? Then—read and record the details of the consecutive saving plan which will be explained in tomorrow's edition, and make up your mind to be one of the twenty-five to have the honor of representing Boston and the Boston American on the special De Luxe Pullman train, which will leave this city for the Pacific Coast about the middle of July.

Some twenty-five among you, candidates, will take this wonderful trip. Decide RIGHT NOW that YOU will be ONE of the fortunate twenty-five.

AUTO DEALERS AT BELMONT OUTING

By J. C. KERRISON.

The opening of the baseball season had no detrimental effect upon the attendance, interest or pleasure of the annual spring outing of the Automobile Dealers Association at the Belmont Springs Country Club.

The attendance was the largest on record. The interest and pleasure were of the record-breaking order and for four the men who took and who were taken to the club.

In and it was difficult to determine the purpose of the last year's outing. The interest and pleasure were of the record-breaking order and for four the men who took and who were taken to the club.

President MacAlister was the guest of honor. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter. The interest and pleasure were of the record-breaking order and for four the men who took and who were taken to the club.
